

Satellite radio is one of the best services going for both entertainment and information without the constant advertising and juvenile humor. Satellite radios content seems to be driven by a paying customer base that wants this service. I pay for satellite radio because of the news, weather and traffic information that is not available on standard am and fm bands. I respectfully request that you reject any restrictions on satellite radio broadcasts especially the NAB petition 04-160